The response filed June 15, 2007 was accepted as a complete response to the March 30, 2007 Office action, but it failed to point out original support for new and/or amended claims as requested in the Conclusion section. Furthermore, the response failed to point out a list of all copending applications that set forth similar subject matter. Finally, it was shift from the previously claimed and elected inventions, and it did not point out which claims read on the elected inventions or species being prosecuted; see the restriction requirements dated December 4, 2006 and August 25, 2006. Nonetheless, in order to advance prosecution, the Examiner decided to issue an Office action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 56-67 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Upon review of the specification, original support could not be found for a passageway sized to allow movement in medial-lateral and anterior-posterior directions; see page 9, line 19 to page 10, line 8. In fact, the only mention of mounting the base plate and stem to the augment involved cementing the augment to the stem; see Figure 8 and page 15, line 17 to page 16, line 2. For this reason, the presently claimed subject matter lacks original support.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 56, 58-60, and 62-66 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Pottenger et al (US 6,039,764). Pottenger anticipates the claim language where the tibial implant as claimed corresponds to the bearing element (226) of Pottenger, the tibial augment as claimed corresponds to the tibial component (218), the annular body as claimed corresponds to the portion of the tibial component that surrounds the recess (222), and the passageway as claimed is the recess (222); see Figure 43 and column 23, lines 21-39.

With regard to claim 62, the claim language is met where the heights can be measured long the angled portions and compared to the heights of the vertical portions.

With regard to claim 64, the exterior wall as claimed is the underside of the plate of Pottenger.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

Art Unit: 3738

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 57 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Pottenger et al (US 6,039,764) in view of Johnson et al (US 6,136,029). Pottenger meets the claim language as explained in the Section 102 rejection supra but fails to disclose the utilization of porous tantalum as the implant material. However, Johnson teaches that it was known to use porous tantalum in the art; see column 4, lines 42-58. Therefore, it is the Examiner's position that it would have been obvious to utilize porous tantalum as the implant material for the same reasons that Johnson utilizes the same.

Claim 67 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Pottenger et al (US 6,039,764) in view of Bolesky (US 4,822,366). Pottenger meets the claim language as explained in the Section 102 rejection supra but Pottenger fails to disclose utilizing a plurality of tibial augments of different size as claimed. However, Bolesky teaches utilization of a plurality of differently-sized augments was known to the art; see Figures 2 and 6 as well as column 6, lines 35-54. Therefore, it is the Examiner's position that it would have been considered prima facie obvious to an ordinary artisan to provide a plurality of different-sized augments so as make the invention adaptable to a plurality of different-sized patients.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

Applicant should specifically point out the support for any amendments made to the disclosure, including the claims (MPEP 714.02 and 2163.06). Due to the procedure outlined in MPEP 2163.06 for interpreting claims, it is noted that other art may be applicable under 35 USC 102 or 35 USC 103(a) once the aforementioned issue(s) is/are addressed.

Applicant is respectfully requested to provide a list of all copending applications that set forth similar subject matter to the present claims. A copy of such copending claims is respectfully requested in response to this Office action if the application is not stored in image format (i.e. the IFW system) or published.
